Heritage Shared Publications Now Available for Distribution Countywide

“Historic San Luis Obispo County Byways” and “Living on the Land” are glovebox guidebooks for exploring the many intriguing sites that dot San Luis Obispo County. Each book will lead you off the beaten track through a variety of rural landscapes to interesting and historic destinations. Remember that half the fun is getting there. The guidebooks are available at no charge to organizations that wish to distribute them free to county residents and visitors.

Each guidebook is 16 pages, 8.5” x 5.5”, and features photographs and a brief description for each of 14 historic sites, driving directions to each site, and a County map showing relative locations.

To order: Fill out a copy of this form. Print clearly, as this will become the shipping label. Books must be ordered in multiples of 50.
